Job Announcement – Call for Applicants

Title of Position: Program Manager

AARP Foundation Experience Corps of Greater New Haven (EC-GNH)

Reports to: IVCG Executive Director

Salary/exempt status: Part-time (initially with 20 hrs/wk), non-exempt, hourly. Influenced by the successful candidate, this position has growth opportunity for additional hours and/or conversion to a salaried position when program funding affords that investment.

Hours/schedule: 20 hours per week, Monday-Friday. Typically, within the 9:00a-4:00p timeframe with flexibility in scheduling (prioritizing the needs of the program).

Summary of Position: Manage daily functions of the AARP Experience Corps of Greater New Haven literacy tutoring program. Facilitate training and coaching for volunteer tutors. Lead EC-GNH reporting efforts. Serve as the principal liaison between our program and the assigned sites. Assist with additional IVCG strategic program tasks when time allows.

Responsibilities include:

- Manage daily functions of the EC-GNH literacy tutoring program. Act as a liaison between EC-GNH, volunteers, and school staff.
- Supervise EC-GNH program staff
- Observe volunteers and coach them to ensure AARP Foundation Experience Corps structured session standards are followed and sessions are as effective as possible.
- Work with school staff to schedule and assign volunteers to students.
- Process program data (e.g. monthly program data, general program evaluation, volunteer time entry, student progress logs, and grant-based report needs).
- Complete performance reviews for volunteers up to twice per year.
- Plan and implement team meetings for EC-GNH volunteers.
- Provide basic technical assistance to tutors and students tutoring sessions.
- Ensure tutors and students have tutoring supplies. Prepare (or overseeing others in the prep-efforts) and ensure those supplies are delivered to tutoring sites.
- Conduct student assessments as needed.
- Serve as a monitor for tutoring sessions, in-person or virtually, as needed.
- Assist Training Coordinator with tutor training.
- Assist in recruiting new volunteer tutors for the program.
